OBIETTIVI FORMATIVI

▪ POLICY PROCESS IN THE EU

In its second part the course is focused on the European Public Policies: Foreign, Security & Defence Policy and it is about the EU as an actor of the world political system. The student gains knowledge about the political and security relations of the EU with the rest of the world.

▪ EUROPEAN FOREIGN POLICY

The EU Public Policy course in its first part provides students with a knowledge of the policy process in the EU, with particular focus on agenda setting and policy shaping phases.

MODALITÀ DI SVOLGIMENTO DELL'INSEGNAMENTO

▪ POLICY PROCESS IN THE EU

Lessons, Workshop, presentation by Students on a reading list provided in advance by Professor

▪ EUROPEAN FOREIGN POLICY

Students learn how to apply the political science methods to building knowledge about the EU's presence and actions in world affairs. At the course completion, they will be able to analyze and to write and present reports about the successes and failures of the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) and Common Security and Defense Policy (CSDP).

The Module is structured around 7 questions. They are separately addressed in 2 two-hour sessions, the Monday and Thursday session.

PREREQUISITI RICHIESTI

- POLICY PROCESS IN THE EU

Knowledge of the institutional and political organization of the European Union

- EUROPEAN FOREIGN POLICY

This is not a current events seminar. Readings and homework must be done prior to class meetings. Key readings in electronic format are provided by the instructor to the students. They offer to student scientific-based knowledge necessary to develop informed opinions. Homework aims at making the student able to shape the argument s/he wants to defend in the class discussion. Homework consists in preparing either a 3/5-slide PowerPoint or a Poster file. It outlines the student's argument on the topic of the class debate. All the students hand by email the homework file to the Instructor the day before the relevant session.
