

MODERN HISTORY

M-STO/02 - 9 CFU - 2° Semester

Teaching Staff

SILVANA RAFFAELE

Email: silvanaraffaele@gmail.com

Office: Palazzo Ingrassia, via Biblioteca 4

Phone: 0952508048

Office Hours: martedì, ore 9.30/11.30

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

To know the history of Europe connected with the world events between XVI and XIX centuries. To understand the following concepts: structure, conjuncture, longue durée, crisis, revolt, revolution, stays and breaks. To link institutional and political events to the demographic and economic trends, to the changes in social structures and to the analysis of the contemporary economic processes.

DETAILED COURSE CONTENT

History of Europe between XVI and XIX centuries: events, revolts, revolutions, politics, society, structures, conjunctures, stays and breaks.

TEXTBOOK INFORMATION

Corso generale

- F. Benigno, L'età moderna. Dalla scoperta dell'America alla Restaurazione, Roma-Bari, Laterza, 2005.

Corso monografico

E. Frasca, Il bisturi e la toga. Università e potere urbano nella Sicilia borbonica. Il ruolo de medico (secoli XVIII-XIX), Acireale-Roma, Bonanno, 2008.
